Molly L. Weathington is a Founding Partner and the Managing Partner at Weathington, LLC.

Her litigation and trial practice focuses primarily on hospitals, physicians and other healthcare institutions in actions alleging professional negligence, as well as product liability actions. She has also been very involved in providing risk management advice to hospitals and other healthcare related organizations regarding pre-litigation patient claims. She has tried numerous malpractice cases, with great success.

Molly has achieved an AV Preeminent rating through Martindale-Hubbell®.

Molly is a native of Fitzgerald, Georgia and received a B.S. degree from the Georgia Institute of Technology in 1991. She thereafter attended Georgia State University and in 1995 earned a J.D. and was admitted to the Georgia bar. During law school, Molly was an active member of the Moot Court Board competition team, Student Trial Lawyer's Association competition teams and Phi Delta Phi. She is presently a member of the American and Atlanta Bar Associations, the Defense Research Institute, the Georgia Defense Lawyer's Association, the Georgia Society of Healthcare Risk Management and the Lawyer's Club of Atlanta. Molly also served as a member of the Georgia Tech Athletic Association Alexander Tharpe Board of Directors and as a member of the Atlanta Council of Younger Lawyers Board of Directors.
